THE NEW CONGRESS.

The gains in the Congressional districts will undoubtedly give the control of the House to the Republicans. There will be no balance of power. Reed will again direct legislation at his old stand as speaker of the House.

Information from Washington this afternoon is to the effect that Chairman Babcock of the Republican Congressional Committee claims the Republicans will organize the next United States Senate. His information is that the Tennessee Legislature will send a Republican to succeed Harris. Babcock also has a dispatch stating that Denny, Rep., in the Seventh Kentucky district is elected by 255. This is Asylum district, formerly represented by Breckinridge.

Senator Faulkner, Chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee, concedes the House to Republicans by 62 to 70 plurality. The Senate will not be Republican; he says, unless the party carries Tennessee, which is still uncertain, or unless Senator Peffer votes with the Republicans.

The loss of Kansas, New Jersey and South Carolina reduces the present Democratic total in the Senate from 44 to 41. The present Republican strength in the Senate of 38 promises to be increased by Senators from New Jersey, Kansas, Montana, Washington and Wyoming, the last three being vacancies. The Republicans are likely to lose Nebraska. This makes a gain of 5 and a loss of 1, or a net gain of 4, raising the Republican total to 42. The Populists now have three Senators. The returns indicate gains for them in South Carolina and Nebraska, making their total 5. Senator Jones and Stewart of Nevada, of late have affiliated with the Populists, so the Populist strength may be increased and the Republicans decreased by one.

An estimate of the next Senate by Chairman Babcock gives the Republicans 41 out of 88 seats. He counts on Senator Peffer's cooperation to organize.

The Republican Congressional Committee has given out an estimate claiming that in the House of the Thirty-fourth Congress the Republicans will have a majority of delegations in thirty States, the Democrats twelve, the Populists one, with Maryland divided evenly.

THE EAST.

The result of the elections in the East was a surprise even to those who anticipated Republican success. The overwhelming defeat of the Democratic party after its wonderful success two years ago is complete, and many strongholds of the Democracy have taken the alarm, and in their panic have followed in the wake of the great masses of the people and gone into the folds of the Republican party. The defeat of Tammany, which is complete, and the great upheaval in Illinois are indications that the people are tired of Hillism and Atgeld's anarchistic sympathies and tendencies.

The Populists have gained in some quarters and lost in others. Bland, the free coinage champion has been beaten in Missouri showing that the sentiment in the East is still against silver. The cause of the upheaval for the Republican party is because the voters have been persuaded that the hard times come from the tariff legislation of the Democratic party, and they have rebuked the administration. When they discover the real cause, which is the monetary question, they will wake up and vote for silver.

We Wrestled With It.

Imagine the APPEAL job office wrestling with the Australian ballot printing.—Tribune.

The APPEAL job office printed, bound, perforated and indexed the Australian ballots printed in this county, and the job was complicated by all printers. There was not a single error discovered in the ballots. The Tribune printed the ballots for Emeralds and Douglas counties and got them both wrong, so that the vote on two of the constitutional amendments are invalidated by reason of the errors.
